Fun Fact

Unicorns have been part of myths and legends for thousands of years! In many stories, they are symbols of purity, magic, and healing. Ancient legends describe unicorns as shy creatures that could only be seen by those with kind hearts—and their horns were believed to have the power to purify water and heal sickness.

"Magical Unicorn"

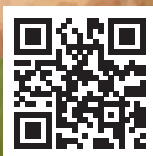

Invite your Little Makicassos to create a graceful unicorn on a art template using markers or watercolor paint. They can design their unicorn with a flowing mane, spiral horn, and sparkling stars or a rainbow in the background. Encourage them to use soft pastel colors or bold magical tones to bring their mythical creature to life with creativity and charm.

Fun Fact

Many castles in real life were built hundreds of years ago to protect royalty and towns. Some had hidden passages, secret rooms, and tall towers where lookouts could spot approaching visitors or enemies. In legends, castles are often enchanted, with talking walls, moving staircases, and magical creatures guarding secret treasures!

"Castle of Legends"

Have your Little Makicassos design a majestic castle on a art template using crayons or watercolor paint. They can create tall towers, drawbridges, and fluttering flags, surrounded by mountains, forests, or a moat. Encourage them to imagine who lives inside—maybe a wizard, knight, or mythical creature—and decorate their castle to match its magical story.

Fun Fact

Wizards are legendary figures known for their wisdom and magical powers. In stories, they often use spells to heal, protect, or reveal hidden truths. Some wizards, like Merlin from the tales of King Arthur, are said to have the power to see the future and shape the destiny of kings!

"The Wizard's Spell"

Have your Little Makicassos draw a magical wizard on a art template using colored pencils or watercolor paint. They can design their wizard with a tall hat, long robe, and a staff or wand casting a colorful spell. Encourage them to add stars, potions, or a magical pet like an owl or dragon to make their artwork feel straight out of a mythical tale.

Explore the Myths & Legends Edition, where students discover unicorns, dragons, magical wonders, and fun educational facts.

Makit offers the perfect personalized gifts to showcase their creativity and bring these legendary adventures to life.

"Pet Dragon"

Have your students bring mythical magic to life by creating their own pet dragon on a art template.

Encourage them to use bold colors, scales, wings, fire, or even a castle in the distance. They can draw, color, or paint their dragon as fierce or friendly as they imagine, inspired by the legendary creatures of myths and folklore.

Fun Fact

Did you know that in many cultures, dragons are believed to have magical powers? In Chinese mythology, dragons are symbols of wisdom and good luck, while in European tales, dragons often guard treasure and live in hidden caves!
